Resolutions of sympathy from Maple Leaf Camp, Modern Woodmen of America.

Whereas the great and supreme ruler of the universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed neighbors, Edward T. Leonard, and whereas his intimate relation with us as a friend and neighbor and as a member of Maple Leaf Camp, M. W. of A., makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him thereon.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this organization and will prove a loss to the community and the public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased we express our hopes that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That our charter will be draped in mourning for sixty days, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this organization, a copy be printed in the Barre Daily Times and The Telegram and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

Visible to the Eye.
A painter once upon a time turned physician and when asked the reason why, replied that in painting all the faults are exposed to the eye, but in physics it is quite the contrary.
Now, if this particular painter had used Colonial Paint instead of some of the many mixtures, he would still have been a painter. The Colonial has no faults. It pleases the property owner, the painter, and makes a better looking town.

Jealousy in Tutuila.
Tutuila, Samoa, June 1, via San Francisco, June 17.—On the night of May 12 some members of the native guard called upon some Samoan school girls at the native mission house at Fagatogo, and several young men of the place in a spirit of jealousy stoned the guard. Several free fights between the guards and the villagers followed. The disturbance was quelled by native Governor Mauga and the chiefs, but not until five soldiers were seriously hurt. Threats were made to burn the town, but were not carried out.
